

30 May 2007

Texon International Moves Head Office to Asia and Appoints new CEO

Texon International today announced the move of its Head Office to Hong Kong and the appointment of Tom Spedding as Group Chief Executive.

Stephen Bracegirdle the outgoing CEO who has led the worldwide restructuring program stated "This closes a 108 year association with Leicester (UK), and with Tom's appointment positions the group for further growth closer to our major customers".